

Dispensation Decision

Date Dispensation Request considered. (by Clerk to the Council as delegated in UPC Standing Orders Clause 53)  Name of Councillor(s) requesting dispensation:  All elected and co-opted members of Urchfont Parish Council to clarify the position following issues raised at Planning and Full Council meetings on 10 th and 17 th . June 2015. Situation still applies in July 2023.  Dispensation granted: Yes/No  Reasons for the decision  (If granted, also specify on what grounds the decision was made, i.e. the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the authority's area)  To ensure transparency, that principles of governance are met and in the general interests of all living in the Parish it is considered appropriate that all councillor's should take part in Council debate of and vote on any valid planning application¹ within the Parish boundary EXCEPT:  - An application made by or on behalf of a Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings <sup>2</sup> , 3  - An application made by or nebalfing a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand holdings)  - An application being made by or on behalf of a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered as a defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant <sup>2</sup> , 3  - An application being made by or on behalf or a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant <sup>2</sup> , 3  - An application being made by or on behalf or a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor for related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12 to 16:  The business of the council for which the dispensation has been given (if appropriate)  This scenario should have been reg
Council to clarify the position following issues raised at Planning and Full Council meetings on 10th and 17th June 2015. Situation still applies in July 2023.  WES  Reasons for the decision  (If granted, also specify on what grounds the decision was made, i.e. the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the authority's area)  To ensure transparency, that principles of governance are met and in the general interests of all living in the Parish it is considered appropriate that all councillor's should take part in Council debate of and vote on any valid planning application¹ within the Parish boundary EXCEPT:  An application made by or on behalf of a Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings². An application made by or on behalf of a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand holdings². An application made by or on behalf of a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's late of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant ²-³  An on-pecuniary interest can and should be declared where necessary, this will not affect the councillor's required to leave the room during Council debate and voting. Subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting. This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting. Subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting. This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor is necessary. The subject of the meeting. This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor is necessary. The subject of the meeting. This scenario should have been regis	(by Clerk to the Council as delegated in UPC	4th July 2015 - Updated 2019, 2023
Reasons for the decision  (If granted, also specify on what grounds the decision was made, i.e. the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the authority's area)  To ensure transparency, that principles of governance are met and in the general interests of all living in the Parish it is considered appropriate that all councillor's should take part in Council debate of and vote on any valid planning application within the Parish boundary EXCEPT:  An application made by or on behalf of a Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings <sup>2</sup> .  An application made by or relating to a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand holdings) <sup>2</sup> .  An application being made by or on behalf of a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant <sup>2</sup> .  An on-pecuniary interest can and should be declared where necessary, this will not affect the councillor's right to take part or vote <sup>2</sup> UPC Standing Orders state that the concillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting, subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting.  This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor in accordance with UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12 to 16.  Discussion and voting on valid planning applications relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site visits and interim planning meetings as appropriate.	Name of Councillor(s) requesting dispensation:	Council to clarify the position following issues raised at Planning and Full Council meetings on 10 th and 17 th June are met and in the general interests of all living in the Parish it is considered appropriate that all councillor's should take part in Council debate of and vote on any valid planning application within the Parish boundary EXCEPT:  - An application made by or on behalf of a Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings <sup>2</sup> , - An application made by or relating to a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand ho/dings) <sup>2</sup> An application being made by or on behalf of a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant <sup>2</sup> , <sup>3</sup> - An on-pecuniary interest can and should be declared where necessary, this will not affect the councillor's right to take part or vote <sup>3</sup> UPC Standing Orders state that Councillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting, subject to having the right to speak only in the public participant part of the meeting.  - This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor in accordance with UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12 to 16.  Discussion and voting on valid planning applications relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site visits and interim planning meetings as appropriate.	Dispensation granted: Yes/ No	YES
Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings².  • An application made by or relating to a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand ho/dings)².  • An application being made by or on behalf of a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid agent, contractor, or advisor to the applicant ²,³  • A non-pecuniary interest can and should be declared where necessary, this will not affect the councillor's right to take part or vote ² UPC Standing Orders state that the Councillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting, subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting.  • This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor in accordance with UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12 to 16.  Discussion and voting on valid planning applications relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site visits and interim planning meetings as appropriate.	(If granted, also specify on what grounds the decision was made, i.e. the dispensation is in the	are met and in the general interests of all living in the Parish it is considered appropriate that all councillor's should take part in Council debate of and vote on any valid planning application <sup>1</sup> within the Parish boundary necessary, this will not affect the councillor's right to take part or vote  2 UPC Standing Orders state that the Councillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting, subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting.  3 This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor in accordance with UPC Code of Conduct Clauses 12 to 16.  Discussion and voting on valid planning applications relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site visits and interim planning meetings as appropriate.		Councillor (or related others as defined in UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) in respect of registered land holdings <sup>2</sup> + <sup>3</sup> • An application made by or relating to a councillor's immediate next-door neighbour (all sides of a councillor's registered rand ho/dings) <sup>2</sup> • An application being made by or on behalf of a non-council member of the Parish, but where a Councillor (or related others as defined in the UPC Code of Conduct Clause 12) is acting as a paid relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site visits and interim planning meetings as appropriate.		necessary, this will not affect the councillor's right to take part or vote <sup>2</sup> UPC Standing Orders state that the Councillor is required to leave the room during Council debate and voting, subject to having the right to speak only in the public participation part of the meeting. <sup>3</sup> This scenario should have been registered as a disclosable pecuniary interest by the Councillor in accordance with UPC Code of
Length of dispensation FOUR YEARS (to July 2027)		relating to existing properties, land, and new developments within the Parish boundary. All councillor's take part in this activity at monthly Council meetings, site
	Length of dispensation	FOUR YEARS (to July 2027)

Signed:

Bob Lunn, Clerk to Urchfont Parish Council

Dated. 4th July 2023